

Tom Hadcroft – co-opted governor

Tom Hadcroft is the current Senior Vice Principal of DLD College in central London and joined them in August 2016, overseeing the boarding and pastoral areas of the College. He is wholly committed to the pastoral support of young people and can draw on a wealth of experience gained in both the UK and Internationally.

Tom was a Senior Houseparent at Collège Alpin Beau Soleil for five years, an international boarding school located in the Swiss Alps. Prior to this experience he worked for seven years as Assistant Boarding Housemaster and Head of Department at St John's School, Leatherhead. Previous to that, he worked both in the UK and Europe in the education and finance sectors.

Tom has experience as an International School Accreditor for the Council of International Schools, he is a course tutor for the Boarding Schools' Association, a Mental Health First Aid Youth instructor and is currently working on an MEd in Educational Leadership from the University of Buckingham. He lives in Teddington with his wife and family, his 6year old daughter Chloe and 11 year old son Louie. He is a trustee for his son's Scout group in Kingston.
