

Elaine Joyce – Chair of Governors

I have been a school governor for many years in different schools in South London and Surrey. I have had a long and happy career, in a variety of jobs, in education and even when I retired I missed the children so went back as a supply teacher! I love walking and gardening and, at the moment, am spending more time baking biscuits and cakes which I deliver to my four grandchildren who live near me.