

Wendy Small

I am a Chartered Accountant who has worked in education for over 18 years including as a school bursar and for the Department for Education. I loved the 5 years I spent working in schools and the sense of community they bring. I am now retired but do some ad hoc education finance consultancy. I love to walk, read, knit and trips to the sea.